POLICE COURT A REPEATER

David Cashi made a big spell in police court this morning all because he was justly arrested Monday night by Officer Simms. He was arrested Sunday for being drunk and a relative paid the $12 fine imposed. The man instead of sobering up got drunk again last night and the officer mentioned took him in. He made a sore talk to the mayor and chief and claimed that the police didn't give him time to straighten up. He was fined $5.00 and sent to the streets to serve it out. That was the extent of police court.

Dam Finished

The dam constructed across Elk creek a short distance below Industrial by the Phillips Sheet Steel company is entirely completed. The water supply for the big plant is now sufficient for any emergency.

Keeping Sets of Books for Corporations, Partnership Concerns, Officers of Clubs and Private Individuals.

I am now prepared to take care of all special work pertaining to Auditing, Accounting, Opening and Closing Sets of Books, and Devising and Installing Systems. You can more readily negotiate capital for your enterprises through an Accountant than a Broker. Circularizing will not do today; personal solicitation is the only sure way. I have an especial clientele of capitalists throughout the section and Eastern States, where my profession as an Accountant for the past few years has brought me into touch with the wealth of these sections, and I have associates who will assist me in presenting your proposition in person. Few investors will entertain a proposition without a figured statement can be shown, illustrating actual or prospective profits, drawn up by an independent Accountant of repute, and this is the basis of any successful flotation. I have also engaged an expert stenographer to attend to the public work of the line of stenographic work.
